THE QUEEN AND THE PRESIDENTS

THE SEVENTH DECADE

Queen Elizabeth II ascended the throne on February 6, 1952 upon the death of her father, King George VI. Her Coronation followed on June 2, 1953. The Queen celebrated her Golden Jubilee (50 years since her accession) in 2002. Queen Elizabeth II is the United Kingdom's Head of State. She is queen of 16 former British colonies, including Australia, Canada and New Zealand; and head of the Commonwealth, a multinational body created after the dissolution of the British Empire. Her Majesty The Queen's title in the United Kingdom is 'Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom, of Great Britain and Northern Ireland'. The Queen's other duties include approving legislation and acting as the Head of the Armed Services and of the Church of England. 1996 marks the 40th birthday of the Queen. The Government and people of Papua New Guinea wish the Queen a happy birthday and many more happy years ahead as the Queen of England.
