The image displays a collection of Estonian postage stamps and postmarks, arranged in rows. The stamps feature various designs, including landscapes, buildings, and abstract patterns. Denominations are visible in both Estonian (PENN, MARKA) and Finnish (PENNIN, MARKKA) currencies. Some stamps are cancelled with postmarks.

A large collection of Latvian postage stamps is displayed on a page. The stamps are arranged in several rows. The top rows feature small, rectangular stamps with the word 'LATVIJA' and various denominations (KAP 3, KAP 5, KAP 10, KAP 15, KAP 20, KAP 35). These stamps have a sunburst design. Below these are larger, more ornate stamps, including a 1918-1919 issue featuring a woman in a red dress. There are also stamps with the word 'LATVIJAS PASTS' and various denominations (1, 2, 5, 10, 20, 50, 100). The stamps are in various colors (red, blue, green, purple, brown) and some are cancelled with a large 'X' or a circular postmark. A small label with the word 'Latvia.' is placed among the stamps.
