CHINA

In colossal CHINA, world's second largest country (3,768,727 sq. mi.; estimated pop. 700,000,000) dwell almost one-fourth of the entire human race. Modern China, passive, corrupt, disorganized, was bullied for generations by "foreign devils" bent on monopolizing the lucrative Chinese market. The revered Dr. Sun Yat-sen founded the Chinese Republic in 1911. His successor, Chiang Kai-shek, tried to unify China, but lost the civil war with the Communists. Today, politically, there are two Chinas: the Communist PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA (cap. Peiping) and the Nationalist REPUBLIC OF CHINA (cap. Taipei), the latter situated on the island of Formosa (Taiwan).
