The Line Engraved Issues- 1840
1d Black, Plate 7, three margins one close-Put to press July 8, 1840.

1840 December 13.
(Note-Sunday Date)

1d Black, Plate 7, check letters P-L tied by red maltese cross to piece being part of an entire backstamped 'Preston Brook-DE 13 1840' by black circular town cancel. There is also traces of another stamp on the reverse side but since this in itself is backwards it is probably a pick up from another wet stamp. The most that can be seen of the receiving details is that it was addressed to a bank in Manchester.

Postal History

The 1d Black, Plate 7, P-L, does not have the 'O' flaw. The letter 'P' is central and the letter 'L' is central and to the left. The lower left serif of this letter is weak and nearly absent. There should be scratches in the lower margin but these cannot be seen because of the close cut on the left side. The Brown key checks 7-5-5-6.

The Line Engraved Issues- 1840.
1d Black, Plate 5, L-H, 3 margins
Put to press June 1st, 1840.

1840 December 18th.

1d Black, L-H three margins tied to cover by red maltese cross and backstamped in red by scottish town cancel 'Airdrie, December 18th 1840.' Cover is addressed to John Buchanan Esq. No. 5 General Register House, Edinburgh. In manuscript the senders name 'W. Jackson' can be seen.

Postal History

Colonel William Leader Maberly was Secretary to the Post Office and did much to impede the progress and working of postal reform. He was Rowland Hill's bitter opponent and said, before the Commissioners, he did not believe the public would write more letters: it would certainly object to prepayment.

Eventually he was removed from the Post Office to a position on the Audit Board.
